2 JULY STAN TRACEY QUARTET £20

With a distinguished career spanning six decades of flourishing creativity, pianist and composer Stan Tracey (the Godfather of British Jazz) has been a highly influential and stimulating musical voice, not only to his peers but to each successive generation of musicians with whom he has worked. Stan's capricious piano playing combines the percussive melody of Thelonious Monk with the robust lyricism of Ellington in a highly idiosyncratic style. A master of harmony, he possesses a potent and compelling improviser's intellect. Completing this unmissable quartet are Simon Allen saxophone, Andy Cleydert bass and Clark Tracey drums.

9 JULY BARB JUNGR £15

In collaboration with composer and pianist Simon Wallace, singer Barb Jungr reveals herself to be a peerless interpreter of popular song. On her new CD, The Men I Love, Barb sings the New American Songbook, great songs that bear re-interpretation from the great writers who emerged post-rock 'n' roll and everyone that followed – Springsteen, Cohen, Dylan, Diamond, Bryne and Eno. As she says, 'This has taken longer to make than anything I've done before, in large part because I wanted to get as close as possible to the spirit of the live performance but still make a record in the traditional sense'.

16 JULY SNAKE DAVIS £15

A saxophonist's saxophonist, Snake Davis is a virtuoso player with a passionate and bluesy approach. He is in constant demand from the very biggest names in the business. Snake has a unique style of playing that has been influenced by his love of Northern Soul music, King Curtis, Junior Walker and Michael Brecker. A melange of these styles with a good pinch of soul music gets close to the Snake Davis sound. Paul Birchall keyboards, Neil Fairclough bass and Bryan Hargreaves drums make up this fabulous band.

23 JULY ESTHER MILLER £15

South African born Esther Miller's star continues to rise. She is a jazz singer of the classical school possessing an outstanding technique with sensitive interpretation and her eclectic repertoire will delight. Esther takes her inspiration from Sarah Vaughan, Billie Holiday, Shirley Horn and Blossom Dearie as well as Frank Sinatra and Nat King Cole. Her latest album, Into the Sunlight, is a collaboration with pianist/composer Steve Melling, who has worked very closely with Esther over the past ten months and is with her tonight, as is Steve Waterman trumpet, Zoltan Dekany bass and John Perry drums. Voice, style and presence – she has it all. A great talent. HUMPHREY LYTTTELTON

30 JULY JON LLOYD QUINTET £15

Five great musicians, all at the very top of their game. Soprano saxophonist and composer Jon Lloyd and John Law piano, lead, with Rob Palmer guitar, Rodney Teague bass and Asaf Sirkis drums completing this wonderful quintet. The music visits many different territories, from ECM to post bop, free jazz to modal minimalism! Ambitious and virtuosic... Jon Lloyd is one of the most striking writers at the sharp end of British jazz and improvisation. JOHN FORDHAM · THE GUARDIAN

6 AUGUST LIANE CARROLL £17

Multi award-winning pianist/singer Liane Carroll makes a welcome return to Fleece Jazz accompanied by Roger Carey electric bass and Mark Fletcher drums. Liane has a remarkable vocal delivery, both powerful and soulful. Swinging like hell one minute, brutally expressive and heart breakingly tender the next... utterly brilliant. TIME OUT

13 AUGUST DYLAN HOWE BAND £15

The ubiquitous and ever popular Blockheads drummer Dylan Howe brings another swinging band to The Fleece for an evening that promises much and will deliver more! Steve Fishwick trumpet, Ross Stanly piano and Oli Hayhurst bass complete this exciting quartet.

20 AUGUST MATT WATES SEXTET £16

Described by Duncan Lamont as, 'The most swinging alto player on either side of the Atlantic', Berklee College music graduate Matt Wates is a truly remarkable British musician, a performer of boundless ability who performs in the classic be-bop style. This is a sextet with a big band sound boasting a three horn frontline with Martin Shaw trumpet, Steve Main saxophone, Leon Greening piano, Malcolm Creese bass and Matt Home drums.

27 AUGUST DRUGSTORE COWBOY QUARTET FEATURING BRANDON ALLEN + QUENTIN COLLINS £15

With a name taken from a film, this new and exciting Hammond groove driven group co-led by the fiery Australian tenor saxophonist Brandon Allen and hard bop trumpeter Quentin Collins, is making waves on the current jazz scene. The other members of this superb quartet are Hammond Organ supremo Ross Stanley and super drummer Enzo Zirilli. The Drugstore Cowboys play their own diverse originals plus classic tunes from the 50s to 60s.

3 SEPTEMBER LUSH LIFE FEATURING ROGER BEAUJOLAIS + B J COLE £14

Roger Beaujolais and the legendary B J Cole, maestros of the vibraphone and pedal steel guitar respectively, have crafted a unique and intoxicating blend of their exotic sounds, woven together with the exquisite double bass of Simon Thorpe. Together they are Lush Life and their new CD with the same title is a must buy!

10 SEPTEMBER JOHN LAW TRIO £15

John Law is renowned as one of Europe's finest improvising pianists. A prize winning classical prodigy he was playing at four and composing at eight having made his first public appearance at six. Balance, poise and a sense of beauty define not just the sound of the piano but also the compositions. Drive, energy and virtuosity are all hallmarks of the driven bass lines and singing tones of Sam Burgess and the world-class drum phenomenon that is Asaf Sirkis.

17 SEPTEMBER MICHAEL HANSON + DAVID NEWTON £14

Two firm Fleece favourites! Michael Hanson is an entirely self-taught guitarist who has been playing professionally for over thirty years. He has developed a highly distinctive style, absorbing elements of swing, be bop, fusion and Latin to brilliant effect with his early blues style. Pianist David Newton is an outstanding talent. His wide-ranging experience has ensured that he is at home in any musical setting.

24 SEPTEMBER RENATO D'ABELLIO + PAOLA ARNESANO £16

An all Italian superstar quintet, led by tenor saxophonist Renato D'Aellio and featuring the award-winning vocalist Paola Arnesano. Renato's playing is intense, but at the same time warm and poignant. He showcases one of the most attractive and affecting tenor saxophonist sounds in contemporary jazz. Paola was the winner of the Italian Jazz Awards 'Luca Flores' 2009 as the Best Jazz Singer in Italy! She is mainly attracted and influenced by the cool jazz singers of the fifties. Bruno Montrone piano, Dario Di Lecce bass and Fabio Delle Foglie drums complete this stellar band. Not to be missed on any account!
